Summary

As a senior at BYU studying Entrepreneurial Management, I've honed my skills in business strategy, leadership, sales, and digital marketing. With experience as an SDR and in venture capital, I've gained valuable insights into sales and marketing strategies. I thrive as a people person, leveraging my interpersonal skills to lead and collaborate effectively. My passion for entrepreneurship drives me to continually seek opportunities for growth and innovation. Let's connect and explore how we can work together to drive success in the business world!
