Summary

Why ThoughtSpot?

ThoughtSpot is the Modern Analytics Cloud company. Our mission is to create a more fact-driven world with the easiest to use analytics platform.

With ThoughtSpot, anyone can leverage natural language search and AI to find data insights and tap into the most cutting edge innovations the cloud data ecosystem has to offer.

Unlocking Data for everyone is the next logical step after implementing a modern data warehouse/data lake. We provide the visualization layer for your data purpose-built for your end users. Your team will be building and making data-driven decisions without needing to learn how to code. This means faster business insights for more efficient operations.
